

The Constitution of Truth

By Samuel Jones

The Torch of Truth:

Truth is a torch, illuminating the nature of things. Without this torch we are no more than a blind man in a world of those who can see. To withhold the truth from a man is to strip him of his sight.

As much as you try, you cannot change the truth, the reality of events, for these exist indefinitely beyond the minds of men.

Truth will be truth and lies will be lies; the truth belongs to all man's eyes.

*Yours with Integrity,
Samuel Jones*

Foreword: Truth is the Foundation of Liberty

What if I told you that I could see the future...? You would laugh at me right and say that I'm completely mad. What if I told you I can see the future because it is a future that we will create? I want you to think about who has the power to create your future.

I believe we stand at a fork in the road for the future of our civilisation, down one path lays secrecy, deception, manipulation, fear and oppression. Here the needs of the few outweigh the needs of the many.

Down the other path is a civilisation based on Truth, Equality, Liberty, Unity, Harmony and Courage. Here the needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few; or even better, the needs of all are met in abundance.

I think I prefer this second option... don't you?

Now let me draw your attention to a book called 'Animal Farm'. This is a classic novel which creates a powerful allegory for equality where some animals are more equal than others.

Have you ever stopped to think what if the animals knew the absolute truth? The truth is that they were never free because they were just livestock on a farm. What if you knew the absolute truth about your situation? Are you too just livestock on the farm?

I raise this because presently I believe that there is a distinct lack of truth. Truth and Trust go hand in hand and how can we trust those in positions of leadership and believe in their integrity without a reciprocation of truth.

It is my belief presently that we as citizens know less than 1% of the truth... Let me repeat that. Less than 1% of the truth.

Often people quote their 'written constitutional rights' and proclaim their entitlement to them, but what gives you such a belief that you are entitled to them? It is for this reason that I am writing for you a written constitution of truth, proclaiming that you are entitled to the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Truth is Freedom and the truth will set you free.

What is Truth?

Truth is a genuine representation of the nature of all things. In the 'Torch of Truth' I liken it to a torch that allows us to see things for what they really are. I believe truth is most fundamental because it will allow us to see an accurate reflection of the civilization that we truly are. Seeing our true reflection will create the power for us to change for the better.

Truth is not bad and truth is not good. Truth just is. Truth is simply that which is. Truth just exists. Truth is objective, unchanging and absolute. The Absolute Truth is that truth belongs to everyone.

I use π as an example of an absolute truth. π is the ratio of a circumference of a circle to its diameter. This ratio is objective, unchanging and absolute. There is no way to manipulate a circle to change this fact.

The Law of Truth

No man is above the law. In every court of law an individual must swear to tell the whole truth and nothing but the truth. The law of truth is more important than the laws of men because until we as citizens receive the whole truth and nothing but the truth then we cannot hold our governments, leaders and fellow citizens to its account.

If a tree falls in the woods and there is no one around to hear; did that tree fall? If a crime is committed and there is no one there to witness it; has a crime been committed?

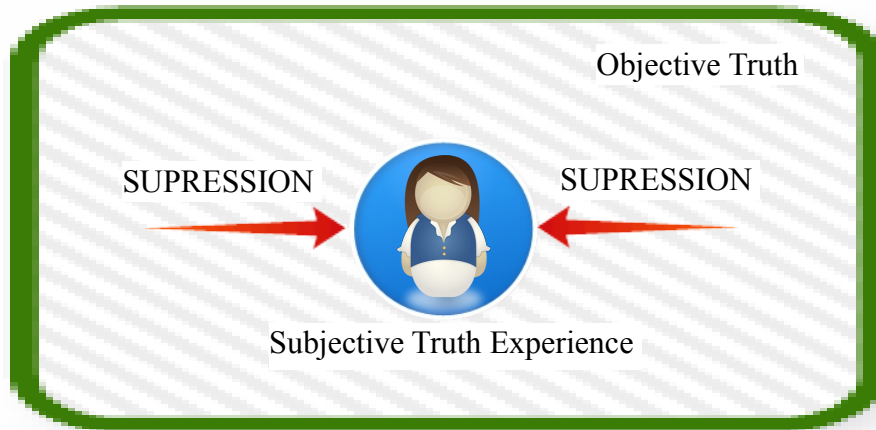

The Subjective Truth Experience

Truth is absolute and objective however as humans we experience it subjectively. A human is bound by their subjective experience of truth. Outside of this subjective truth experience lays hidden or unknown truth. We as individuals can only operate within our subjective truth experience. This means all our behaviours and decisions are confined to our realm of subjective truth.

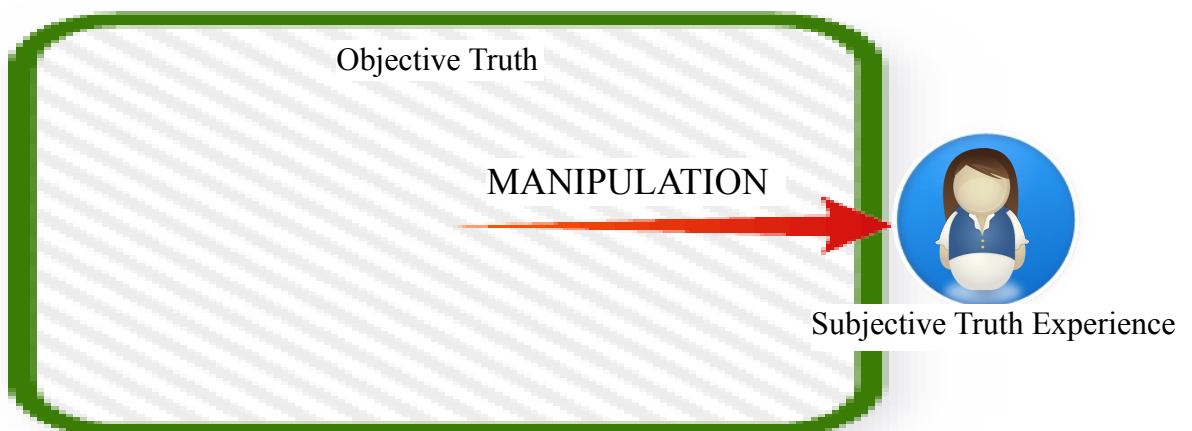

Suppression of truth is a tool of oppression

Suppression is the act of hiding truth from individuals. Hiding truth from someone reduces the size of their Subjective Truth Experience. Individuals can only operate within their Subjective Truth Experience. By reducing this space of potential behaviour the oppressor can deny unwanted behaviour from a person by suppression of the truth.

Deception

Deception includes misrepresentation and manipulation. Deception is a tool of control to move an individual's subjective truth experience into a manipulated, delusional reality. Knowledge is power and those operating with the objective truth can overpower and control those within the delusional reality who have no truth and no power. Individuals may be so disconnected that they have no idea they are in a delusional reality.

The Biggest Lie

The biggest lie is the lie that justifies lies. This is usually the threat of some future catastrophic event which would upset or panic the public (i.e. control is more important than truth). As soon as you submit to the mindset that control is greater than truth then you have committed the biggest lie. Without truth there is no unity and harmony. Mankind has repeatedly shown that they are prepared to lay down their lives for a noble cause in protection of their kin.

This brings me on to the subject of the Second World War, the birth of today's secrecy apparatus. As some might do each year, please take a moment to think about those who bravely gave up their lives in the second world war and imagine what they would be saying from beyond the grave.

Probably something along the lines of: “Wake up! Please don't let my sacrifice be in vain. I gave up my life to fight this oppression through lies and propaganda.”

More usually today the biggest lie is 'the needs of national security'. The needs of national security are actually those of truth. Secrecy has only been necessary in a mindset of war and fear and this is why much of our secrecy apparatus was constructed as part of the Second World War and has remained. We have increased the secrecy and maintained a troubling frequency of war.

To explain why this has all continued until today we must look at Fear, War and Secrecy.

Fear, War & Secrecy

I call this the Fear – War – Secrecy circle. It is not in the interests of citizens to go to war, they are happy living their prosperous peaceful lives, so why does war exist? Fear is the root cause of war and this is where the circle starts. Fear is created to manifest war, let us use fear of weapons of mass destruction as an example. Once war has been manifested then secrecy and national security can be justified. Once secrecy has been justified and established then a delusional reality of fear can be created and this fear used to perpetuate war. There is a solution to this circle however.

Most individuals in secretive security organisations think they are the good guys but they too are victims of the 'biggest lie' (the lie that justifies lies). The problem is that we are stuck in an immense self-perpetuating international war of subterfuge which is a remnant from previous eras of war. No country wants to step down from this as they are afraid of losing their position of power. Much like Nuclear disarmament we need a disarmament of weapons of mass deception.

We as individuals and as citizens must find the courage to overcome our fear and share our truth and demand truth from others. If populations discovered the acts that their governments and shadow governments were secretly committing on their behalf then most would be abhorred (The recent CIA secret torture scandal is an ideal example). Humans are naturally humane and will demand peace.

When we have the courage to take the first step and fight for truth we can hold the corrupted establishments to account and we will manifest our peace.

Who is crafting the Delusion?

When we look at the fear-war-secrecy circle this should give us an idea of the root of the suppression and delusion. Those justifying war are doing it through fear and in turn are justifying their secrecy so they can maintain the delusion. Those justifying war are also those that are crafting the delusion. Look at who is justifying the war because in turn they are trying to justify secrecy of their own acts.

Truth is the New World Order

One might imagine that a single world government a 'New World Order' might solve this international war of subterfuge by providing unity. In unity there would be no adversaries and no war.

A New World Order (NWO) is fundamentally rationally flawed. An individual citizen in the United Kingdom for example may currently have a vote which counts for 1 out of 60million people. If a NWO is set-up then that persons voting power will be diluted to 1 out of 8Billion. It makes no rational sense for any citizen to agree to a NWO. A NWO would also take a long time and a vast amount of bureaucracy to implement. Also as seen in the Histories of Russia and China, a leadership apparatus with a single centralised power is extremely vulnerable to being infiltrated and sequestered for private or personal interests. A New World Order government should never be accepted. Anyone suggesting that one should accept a NWO most probably wants to create a single power structure that is easier for themselves to infiltrate and assume control of.

If we look back at the Animal Farm allegory then we can see that the farm is a New World Order, with the farmer as the leadership. Fighting over rights and position is irrelevant as long as the animals are still on a farm. Animals like humans were born to be free, all we need to do is stop fighting and jump over the fence.

A much better solution is for our elected leaders to work together with integrity. Leaders that are elected in truth based democracies where they can be thrown out by the people if subterfuge is discovered. As I will explain, truth is all that is needed for unity. 2015 will be the New World Order of Truth.

Harmony and Unity

Under peace, unity and harmony truth is shared. Through this mechanism of sharing truth, individuals create the ability to operate not only within their own subjective truth experience but the unified truth experience; an individual's freedom within the domain of Objective Truth is maximised. Humans naturally want to share their experiences and this is why carrying secrets can sometimes feel more like carrying a burden. Under unity it is easy to identify an agent of deception because his shared deception is so different to the unified truth experience and clearly observable as outside of objective truth.

Truth is a natural unifying force. Truth is the equality we are all looking for. Truth sees all equally, truth doesn't judge. Truth doesn't care what colour your skin is, what sex you are or how much you earn. Truth will see you as you are and accept you as such. Because truth would see you and all your actions for what they are, you are truth, everything you do is truth. Truth is that which is and to truth you are no more than everything you are and everything you have done, you are that which is.

If we pull ourselves out of the multiple party paradigms of politics and focus more on truth and implementing governments that are robust against corruption, infiltration and subversion by private interest groups, then it is clear that truth is the key that will unlock Edward Snowden's "Turnkey Tyranny".

The Lesson of Truth

As explained, the suppression of truth is a tool of oppression and the principal justification for suppression of the truth is fear. We must find the courage to overcome our fear and demand our truth, demand our peace.

We must all see the biggest lie for what it is and have courage to overcome it and believe in the courage of others. As long as anyone accepts that control is more important than truth, we will never be free.

We must demand sanctity of media rather than government propaganda. Control of the media is control of the truth and those who control the truth control our reality and all our potential behaviour. Media should never ever be controlled or suppressed. Media should be a force of unity rather than a force for propaganda and control. We must realise that Freedom of press no longer exists and we must take it back.

We must teach children to manage and overcome fear at a young age. Without fear much of the negative mindsets of humanity will be reversed. For this I use the example of racism. Fear of being different and fear of that which is different to ourselves leads us to have a negative view of the reality. The reality is in fact that having a diverse wide-ranging set of genetics and cultures is a fantastic thing for our species. If we overcome our mindsets of fear we will be able to take situations of positivity and expand upon them.

We must put truth as the first priority. All the big problems in the world such as poverty, famine, disease, war, pollution, climate change are all unsolvable until the Truth is shared. Knowledge is power, and knowledge of our truth will create the power for us to change for the better.

We must accept the truth. People's first reaction to truth is usually denial and we must overcome this to leave our manipulated reality and create Harmony and Unity.
